President's report:

Dominic talked to Gary Dickerson, Activities Director for the North Agency, who said that the State wants another archeological update report and a Fish & Game Report before the Lake Los Angeles Community Center can begun to be built. The groundbreaking for the Community Center is now scheduled for late spring. The extent or duration of the investigation is not presently known. Mr. Dickerson is sending chairs, tables, and folding tables for the double wide meeting room. Dominic is having difficulties in dealing with reservations office for reserving the double-wide at the Park for various community meetings, and will continue to work with the reservations department to try and help community organizations to have an easier time. If you have any difficulty with reservations, please let Dominic know so he can help.
